Key features of the proposed FTT

Taxable transactions

- Transactions of financial instruments if
- at least one of the parties in the transaction is established in the FTT area, or
 - the issuer of the financial instrument is located in the FTT area.

Taxable institutions

Financial institutions broadly defined (e.g. investment firms, credit institutions, insurance undertakings, pension funds, AIFs, SPVs,...)

Tax base

Generally the price of the transaction but at least the market price of the instrument (notional for derivatives)

Minimum tax rate

0.1% (0.01% for derivatives) for each party involved in the transaction

Recipient

Member State where financial institution is deemed to be established

Taxable transactions I

FTT applies to a financial transaction if

- at least one party to the transaction is established in the territory of a participating Member State, and if
- a financial institution established in the territory of a participating Member State is party to the transaction (acting either for its own account or for the account of another Person) or is acting in the name of a party to the transaction.

Taxable transactions II

Notion of “establishment”

A financial institution shall be deemed to be established in the territory of a participating Member State if...

Residence principle

1. it has been authorised by authorities of that Member State to act as such, etc.
2. it has its registered seat within that Member State,
3. its permanent address or, if no permanent address can be ascertained, its usual residence is located in that Member State,
4. it has a branch within that Member State, in respect of transactions carried out by that branch, or
5. etc.

Issuance principle

a party is trading certain financial instruments whose issuer is located in a participating Member State. The transaction is linked to the participating Member State in which the issuer is located and the FTT becomes payable in that state.

Taxable transactions III

Financial transaction

- Purchase and sale of a financial instrument before netting or settlement,
- transfer between entities of a group of the right to dispose of a financial instrument as owner and any equivalent operation implying the transfer of the risk associated with the financial instrument,
- Conclusion of derivatives contracts before netting or settlement;
- An exchange of financial instruments, or
- A repurchase agreement, a reverse repurchase agreement, a securities lending and borrowing (purchase and repurchase count as one transaction)

Financial instrument

- Transferable securities,
- Money market instruments,
- Options, futures, swaps, FX derivatives, CFDs, etc.,
- Depositary receipts issued with the essential purpose of avoiding tax on transaction in the underlying (liable person must demonstrate otherwise), or
- etc.

Transactions exempted from the proposed FTT

Exemptions

- Primary transactions including the activity of underwriting;
- Transactions with the ECB and national central banks of Member States;
- Transactions with EFSF, ESM, EU, EIB and other EU bodies under conditions
- Transactions with other international organisations or bodies recognised as such by the public authorities of the host State, within the limits of international conventions or headquarter agreements

Implicit exemptions¹⁾

- Instruments of payment
- Spot currency transactions (while currency derivatives are taxable)
- Most day-to-day financial activities relevant for citizens and businesses (conclusion of insurance contracts, mortgage lending, consumer credits, enterprise loans, payment services etc.)

1) Not explicitly stated in proposed Directive but emerges from used definitions and the Commission's explanatory memorandum
BMCG meeting

Taxable institutions

- FTT shall be payable by each financial institution
 - that is party to the transaction, acting either for its own account or for the account of another person
 - that is acting in the name of a party to the transaction; or
 - on whose account the transaction has been carried out.
- When a financial institution acts in the name of for the account of another financial institution only that other financial institution shall be liable

Exemptions

- Central Counter Parties (CCPs) where exercising the function of a CCP;
- Central Securities Depositories (CSDs) and International Central Securities Depositories (ICSDs) where exercising the function of a CSD or ICSD;
